

A beautiful car for the festive season! Christophe Michalak's "Christmas log"

September 2010

For Christmas, Christophe Michalak, Head Pastry Cook at the Plaza Athénée, has again drawn on the hotel's heritage to take young and old on the road to mouth-watering delights!

Inspired by the Plaza Athénée's children's pedal car, this Christmas "log" resembles a sports car, straight from the taste workshops at 25 Avenue Montaigne. Beneath its dazzling red bodywork lies a creative gem that subtly combines flavours and textures – nougatine-like crunch, a genoa sponge delicately covered with strawberry compote and a light violet-flavoured cream.

The essential accessories include wheels made of giandua chocolate, chocolate bumpers and a sugar windscreen!

To book your "log", phone today. For once, speeding is authorised – and even recommended!
